Ty Pennington hosts "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition" on ABC.

MOVIE: THE NOTEBOOK: This is one of those good dramatic films that makes you want to hug your dog. A young couple (Ryan Gosling, Rachel McAdams) are separated by her parents, who disapprove of his family. After not hearing from him for some time, she marries someone else (James Marsden). Years later, she sees in the newspaper that he restored the old house he'd promised to fix for her. James Garner and Gena Rowlands also star in this 2004 love story set in the 1940s. 5 p.m. on Family

EXTREME MAKEOVER: HOME EDITION: Ty Pennington and the team come to the aid of a Toledo, Ohio, family of 13 living in a cramped and deteriorating one-story home. Jackie Frisch, a minister, and her husband, Aaron, a firefighter, have three biological children and eight adopted ones, including five boys Jackie met in a Haitian orphanage on a mission trip. But over the years, Jackie's health has deteriorated significantly, and the family needs help to save its home. 7 p.m. on KMIZ

MASTERPIECE CONTEMPORARY: She might take offense at the title of this new docudrama, but "Filth" — specifically sex and violence on television — was what Mary Whitehouse spent three decades fighting. Julie Walters of "Harry Potter" fame plays the British school-teacher who began crusading for clean screens in the 1960s and urging others unhappy with the state of television to do the same. Hugh Bonneville plays Sir Hugh Greene, the BBC director-general she challenged. 8 p.m. on KMOS
