Balthazar Getty stars in "Brothers & Sisters" on ABC.

KINGS: King Silas and General Abner (Ian McShane, Wes Studi) plot against David (Chris Egan), while Queen Rose (Susanna Thomson) prepares the mansion for the arrival of the Gath military. William (Dylan Baker) plans to weaken the king's power by asserting his power over the treasury. Outraged over his parents' dismissiveness, Jack (Sebastian Stan) decides to go on a shopping spree. 7 p.m. on KSDK KOMU

KING OF THE HILL: Dale (voice of Johnny Hardwick) gets out of hand after sampling his newfound independence when wife Nancy (voice of Ashley Gardner) leaves the small-town news arena in Arlen for the bright lights of field reporting in Dallas, prompting an increasingly alarmed Hank and Peggy (voices of Mike Judge and Kathy Najimy) to beg her to return home in the new episode "Nancy Does Dallas." 7:30 p.m. on KQFX 38

COLD CASE: One of the most striking trademarks of this hit procedural series is how it weaves vintage musical numbers into its flashback scenes, but this week's episode is unique in featuring only songs by John Lennon to accompany a story in which Rush (Kathryn Morris) and her team investigate whether a homeless paranoid schizophrenic (Billy Lush, "The Black Donnellys") killed his psychiatrist (Jacqueline Obradors, "NYPD Blue") when he was a college student. 8 p.m. on KRCC

BROTHERS & SISTERS: Trying to help before Tommy's (Balthazar Getty) legal troubles get any worse, a desperate Nora (Sally Field) seeks help from the person Tommy hurt the most. Ryan (guest star Luke Grimes) gets a little too close to Rebecca (Emily VanCamp) for Justin's (Dave Annable) comfort, causing Justin to doubt the motives of his recently found half brother. Rachel Griffiths, Calista Flockhart and Matthew Rhys also star in the new episode "Missing." 9:01 p.m. on KMIZ
